Success Stories

On the 17th February, 3 B/M in a white Toyota corolla stole 2 lap tops by posing as inspectors (In Weltevredenpark) The same vehicle was seen the day before in RPR and was involved in a theft at a property in Medlar. Lawrence spotted the guys on his patrolling in Weltevreden and followed them. A chase pursued with Lawrence, David, Elliot & Sam and they pulled the suspect's vehicle over on the N1 South at the walkover bridge. The 3 suspects were arrested for the house robbery the day before in Randparkridge. WELL DONE to all involved.

Area specific incidents

HONEYDEW PRECINCT: RANDPARKRIDGE RRVA:

1 House Breaking, 2 Theft, 1 Hi-jacking, 1 Pedestrian Accident, 1 Motorbike Accident, 1 Accidental death

Other : In Mimosa Street a driveway gate & garage door was left open 02h00. Jerry who was on duty tried to advise the resident (who is not a RRVA member) but unfortunately could not make contact with the resident. On the 20th February CSS were called regarding vagrants in Essenhout Park who were drunk. The CSS reaction officers went there and some of the vagrants left and some were aggressive and wanting to throw stones. Honeydew SAPS were called to assist but they offered no assistance and a report has been submitted to the Honeydew Police.

RPRCPA:

1 House breaking in Haakdoring Street

COMPLEXES:

Azores complex in Northwold. This is a success story. The CPB guard arrested the suspect that had a bag with stolen property from vehicles broken into during the night.

< Fallen tree across the road – With the wet weather and heavy foliage we have had several trees falling over in our areas and have had to intervene and use our chainsaw to cut them up to open the roads.
